

CONFERENCE

“The social integration of refugees and migrants in Japan”

by Prof. Emiko NAKASAKA, Professor of International Law,
Chuo University, Japan

Conférence en langue anglaise, non traduite

Friday 8th March, 2019

De 16h00 à 18h00

Salle Alex WEILL, faculté de Droit,
1 place d'Athènes, Strasbourg

This lecture is about the history of migration to and from Japan, and will discuss the various measures taken to ensure the integration of migrants, proposing further steps in line with international human rights standards.

After having graduated with M.A. from Univ. of Sheffield and L.L.M from Nagoya Univ., Prof. NAKASAKA becomes an expert on the immigration policy as well as the refugees protection and integration issues in Japan. She is also interested in Common European Asylum system and Migration policy..

Organized by the Consulate-General of Japan in Strasbourg in cooperation with the

